

HOW TO GET FROM PRAGUE TO PODEBRADY?

Take a look at <http://jizdnirady.idnes.cz/vlaky/spojeni/>. You will get several options but we would strongly recommend you to take a fast train from PRAGUE RAILWAY STATION (Praha hl.n.) to the PODEBRADY RAILWAY STATION (Poděbrady). It takes approx. 1 hour and costs cca 80-90 CZK. The train departs every day once in an hour (6:08, 7:08, 8:08, 9:08...) and there is the direct connection from Vaclav Havel Airport Prague to Hlavní nádraží (see an information letter).

Choose the station of departure, which is Praha hl. n., and also an arrival station, which is Poděbrady. Do not forget to tick a box called „Direct connections only“, choose the date and time of your departure. Click „SEARCH“ button.

The screenshot shows the IDOS.cz search interface. At the top left is the logo 'IDOS.cz'. To the right are icons for user profile, shopping cart, and a menu. Below these are four buttons: 'Trains' (highlighted with a red circle), 'Buses', 'Prague Public Transport', and 'Timetable Selection'. The search form has two input fields: 'FROM Praha hl.n.' and 'TO Poděbrady'. Below these are date and time selectors: '1.9.2020 tue' and '6:00'. There are radio buttons for 'Departure' (selected) and 'Arrival'. A checkbox for 'Direct connections only' is checked and underlined. A 'SEARCH' button is highlighted with a red circle. There is also an 'Extended search' link.

You can see the page with arrival times. Choose the train. The number of the platform can be found approximately 20 minutes prior to your departure at the departure hall on the first or second floor. You have to buy the train ticket at the railway station on the first floor in advance. Note that in case you want to pay by card you are obliged to inform a cashier about it in advance. If you buy the ticket in the train, you will pay more therefore we recommend to buy the ticket in advance.
